

PISTACIA CHINENSIS SARAH'S RADIANCE™

Chinese Pistache has long been recognized as a handsome ornamental shade tree suitable for urban landscapes. This deciduous tree slowly develops into a stately, broadly oval specimen. Sarah's Radiance™ has all of the outstanding features of the species, but is distinguished by deeper, more intense fall color tinged with purple. This vibrant fall color adds a much-needed hue to desert gardens. As each plant is a clone, form and fall color will be consistent from tree to tree.
